CONDITIONS OF USE

If you are unsure of product and accessory pairing, please reference the products and/or product accessories pages on our website or contact: CustomerService@Dairyland.com.

A complete purchase order contains all necessary information for shipment, including:

- Bracket dimensional data, if applicable.
- Confirmation of End Use Destination (Country and state if available).
- Delivery contact for pedestal purchases (name and phone number).

Purchase Orders that include items not listed or in greater quantities than allowed for in the published price list require a quote to establish price and lead time.

US partners may use these published lists for domestic quotation and sale only. Our international partners may use these forms to sell within their stated territories as specified in their partner agreement.

End Destination, End User (Customer), Project Name and Application should be supplied when order is placed.

Access is obtained only through the website and never printed. Distribution of this document to others outside your company or credential sharing is expressly prohibited.

Dairyland reserves the right to:

- Decline any orders that do not comply with the above requirements.
- Decline any orders for which the product use/application is inappropriate.
- Discontinue or modify pricing at any time with a 30 day notice.
